Midpines Community Hall

To a mouse, an owl is a flying nightmare. To the ecosystem, an owl is a vital predator. Learn about owls, hawks and eagles...Birds of Prey... through this engaging program featuring live birds.

Cat Krosschell is a Master Falconer and a naturalist. With the help of her live Great Horned Owl, Red-tailed Hawk and Peregrine Falcon, Cat will demonstrate flight characteristics and behavior of birds of prey. She will teach you about habitat needs of these and other birds of prey that live in Mariposa County. This program is suitable for people of all ages.

The Upper Merced River Watershed Council is a project of the Mariposa County Resource Conservation District. This program is funded in whole or part through a grant awarded by the California Department of Conservation.

For persons requiring accommodations pertaining to the physical accessibility, sign language interpretation, or alternative formats, please contact the Watershed office 7 days prior to the event at 209-966-2221
